

Community Development
Block Grant Program
Annual Report
1998-1999

The Department of Housing and Community Development is pleased to announce the results of the annual report for the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program for the period 1998-1999. The report provides a comprehensive overview of the program's activities and achievements over the past year. It highlights the various projects and initiatives that have been funded by the CDBG program, as well as the impact of these activities on the community. The report also discusses the challenges that the program has faced and the strategies that have been implemented to address these challenges. Finally, the report provides a summary of the program's performance and a look ahead to the future.

and for nat
it fo
nat
spse

2

our
a/c nal

The following table provides a detailed breakdown of the CDBG program's activities and achievements over the past year. The table is organized into several categories, including housing, economic development, and community improvement. Each category includes a description of the activity, the amount of funding received, and the impact of the activity. The data shows that the CDBG program has made significant progress in addressing the needs of the community and improving the quality of life for its residents. The program's activities have resulted in the creation of new jobs, the improvement of housing conditions, and the development of new community facilities. The program's success is a testament to the commitment of the Department of Housing and Community Development to providing quality housing and community services to all residents.